Who We Are

CT Farm Bureau is a non-profit, grassroots membership organization dedicated to farming and the future of Connecticut agriculture.

What We Do

CT Farm Bureau advocates and educates on issues that keep farm families producing by focusing on economic viability, land use, labor, taxation and the protection of farmland.

Why We Do It

CT Farm Bureau's work is vital to providing safe, locally grown, farm-fresh products and a high quality of life for all Connecticut residents.
