Department of Social Services Comments

Mr. Wysocki explained that there is currently a nationwide search being conducted by the Lamont Administration for the position of DSS Commissioner. He also informed the Committee that there was no current legislative proposal that would affect the continuing care retirement community statutes and that the Department's website was updated with the disclosure statements as well as the minutes and the agendas for this Committee's meetings. Finally, he suggested the Seniors Housing State Regulatory Handbook produced by American Seniors Housing Association as a potential resource to the Committee members.
