CT-1120A-CCA INSTRUCTIONS

Form CT-1120A-CCA must be completed and attached to the Connecticut Corporation Business Tax Return only if the company:

- Carried on business both within and outside Connecticut and was taxable in another state during the income year for which the return is filed; and
- Elects to apportion its income derived from credit card activities under Conn. Gen. Stat. §12-218(j). That election is irrevocable for five successive income years and is applicable to the total income derived from credit card activities.

An election to apportion net income derived from credit card activities must be made on or before the due date or, if applicable, the extended due date, of the Connecticut Corporation Business Tax Return for an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997,

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

A taxpayer is eligible to make the election if it is:

- (A) an institution whose activities are limited to those described in 12 USC §1841(c)(2)(F), as from time to time amended;
- (B) a bank whose deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and which issues credit cards and regularly engages in credit card activities; or
- (C) a wholly-owned subsidiary of a bank that is described in (B), if such subsidiary is engaged in purchasing, holding, selling, assigning, transferring, pledging or otherwise dealing with:
 - (i) revolving credit card accounts and credit card receivables;
 - (ii) pass-through or asset-backed certificates evidencing interests in one or more trusts or pools of credit card receivables; or
 - (iii) related letters of credit, indentures, evidences of indebtedness and agreements including, but not limited to, agreements with originators or servicers of credit card receivables; and if both such subsidiary and such bank have made the election for the same five successive income years.

A taxpayer shall be eligible to apportion its net income derived from credit card activities for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, and prior to January 1, 2002, only if its principal credit card activities during such income years are located in a distressed municipality as defined in Conn. Gen. Stat. §32-9p(b).

DEFINITIONS

Credit card means a credit, travel, or entertainment card.

Receipts means receipts computed according to the method of accounting used by the taxpayer in the computation of net income.

Credit card issuer's reimbursement fee means the fee that a taxpayer receives from a merchant's bank because one of the persons to whom the taxpayer has issued a credit card has charged merchandise or services to the credit card.

Net income derived from credit card activities means interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from credit card receivables, and receipts from fees charged to card holders, including, but not limited to, annual fees, net gains from the sale of credit card receivables, credit card issuer's reimbursement fees, and credit card receivables servicing fees received in connection with credit cards issued by the taxpayer, less expenses related to that income, to the extent deductible under Conn. Gen. Stat. §§12-213 through 12-242z.

Billing address shall be presumed to be the location indicated in the books and records of the taxpayer as the address where any notice, statement or bill relating to the card holder is to be mailed, as of the date of mailing.

Credit card activities means those activities involving the underwriting and approval of credit card relationships or other business activities generally associated with the conduct of business by an issuer of credit cards from which it derives income.

SCHEDULE R-CCA CONNECTICUT RECEIPTS

Complete this schedule to calculate Connecticut receipts derived from credit card activities.

SCHEDULE A-1 COMPUTATION OF CONNECTICUT APPORTIONMENT FRACTION

Complete this schedule to derive an apportionment fraction from credit card activities. Enter the apportionment fraction from Line 9 on Form CT-1120, Schedule A, Line 2, if the corporation's entire net income is attributable to income from credit card activities. Otherwise, complete Schedule A-1 and Schedule A-2 if the corporation's net income is derived in part from sources other than credit card activities.

SCHEDULE A-2 COMPUTATION OF CONNECTICUT NET INCOME

Complete this schedule only if income is derived in part from sources other than credit card activities. Separate apportionment formulas are used for net income derived from credit card activities (Schedule A-1, Line 9) and net income derived from sources other than credit card activities (Form CT-1120A, Schedule Q or R). Connecticut net income is computed on Schedule A-2, Line 13 and entered on Form CT-1120, Schedule A, Line 3.
