Purpose: Form CT-W4 provides your employer with the necessary information to withhold the correct amount of Connecticut income tax from your wages to ensure that you will not be underwithheld or overwithheld. In order for your employer to withhold Connecticut income tax from your wages, you must complete Form CT-W4, and provide it to your employer(s). You are expected to pay Connecticut income tax as income is earned or received during the year. You should complete a new Form CT-W4 at least once a year or if your tax situation changes.

Employee Instructions

Gross Income: For Form CT-W4 purposes, gross income means all income from all sources, whether received in the form of money, goods, property, or services, not exempt from federal income tax, and includes any additions to income from Schedule 1 of Form CT-1040 or Form CT-1040NR/PY.

Filing Status: Generally, the filing status you expect to report on your Connecticut income tax return is the same as the filing status you expect to report on your federal income tax return. However, special rules apply to married individuals who file a joint federal return, but have a different residency status. Special rules also apply to the parties to a civil union recognized under Connecticut law. Nonresidents and part year residents should see the instructions to Form CT-1040NR/PY.

Civil Union: Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2006, parties to a civil union recognized under Connecticut law must file their Connecticut income tax returns as if they were entitled to the same filing status accorded spouses under the Internal Revenue Code. This means, for purposes of calculating their Connecticut income tax liability, parties to a civil union must recompute their federal income tax liability as married filing jointly or married filing separately. Parties to a civil union may not calculate their Connecticut income tax liability as single or head of household filers (although this will be their filing status for federal income tax purposes).

General Instructions: Complete the certificate on Page 1, Lines 1 through 11, sign it, and return it to your employer. Keep a copy for your records.

Check Your Withholding: You could be underwithheld if any of the following apply:

- You have more than one job;
- You qualify under the Special Rules for Certain Married or Civil Union Individuals and do not use the Supplemental Table on Pages 3 and 4; or
- You have substantial nonwage income.

If during the taxable year your circumstances change, such as, you receive a bonus or your filing status changes, you must furnish your employer with a new Form CT-W4 within ten days of the change to avoid underwithholding. If you could be underwithheld, you should consider adjusting your withholding or making estimated payments on Form CT-1040ES, Estimated Connecticut Income Tax Payment Coupon for Individuals. You may also wish to select Withholding Code "D" to elect the highest level of withholding. If you owe $1,000 or more in Connecticut income tax over and above what has been withheld from your income for the prior taxable year, you may be subject to interest on the underpayment at the rate of 1% per month or fraction of a month. To help you determine if you have enough withholding, see Informational Publication 2006(7), Is My Connecticut Withholding Correct?

Nonresident Employees Working Partly Within and Partly Outside of Connecticut

If you work partly within and partly outside of Connecticut for the same employer, you should also complete Form CT-W4NA, Employee's Withholding or Exemption Certificate - Nonresident Apportionment, and provide it to your employer. The information on Form CT-W4NA together with the information on Form CT-W4 will help your employer determine how much to withhold from your wages for services performed within Connecticut. Form CT-W4NA is available from your employer or from the Department of Revenue Services (DRS) at www.ct.gov/DRS

Note: Any nonresident who expects to have no Connecticut income tax liability should choose Withholding Code "E."

Special Rules for Certain Married or Civil Union Individuals

If you are a married or civil union individual filing jointly and you and your spouse both select Withholding Code "A", you may have too much or too little Connecticut income tax withheld from your pay. This is because the phaseout of the personal exemption and credit is based on your combined incomes. The withholding tables cannot reflect your exact withholding requirement without considering the income of your spouse. To minimize this problem, use the Supplemental Table on Pages 3 and 4 to adjust your withholding. You are not required to use this table. Do not use the supplemental table to adjust your withholding if you use the worksheet in Informational Publication 2006(7).

Special Instructions for Armed Forces Personnel and Veterans

If you are a Connecticut resident, your Armed Forces pay is subject to Connecticut income tax withholding unless you qualify as a nonresident for Connecticut income tax purposes. See Informational Publication 2006(9), Connecticut Income Tax Information for Armed Forces Personnel and Veterans, for that criteria. If you do not meet the criteria, complete Form CT-W4 following the instructions on Page 1. If you meet the nonresident criteria, you may request that no Connecticut income tax be withheld from your Armed Forces pay by entering Withholding Code "E" on Form CT-W4, Line 1 and filing the form with your Armed Forces finance officer.

Employer Instructions

For any employee who does not complete Form CT-W4, you are required to withhold at the highest rate.

You are required to keep a Form CT-W4 in your files for each employee. See Connecticut Circular CT, Employer's Tax Guide, for complete instructions.

You must also file copies of Form CT-W4 with DRS and the Department of Labor (DOL) for certain employees as listed below:

Report Certain Employees Claiming Exemption From Withholding to DRS

Employers are required to file copies of Form CT-W4 with DRS for certain employees claiming "E" (no withholding is necessary). See Connecticut Circular CT, Employer's Tax Guide, for further information. Mail copies of Forms CT-W4 meeting the conditions listed in Connecticut Circular CT, Employer's Tax Guide with Form CT-941, Connecticut Quarterly Reconciliation of Withholding, to DRS.

Report New and Rehired Employees to DOL

Conn. Gen. Stat. §31-254(b) requires employers with offices in Connecticut or transacting business in Connecticut to report names, addresses, and Social Security Numbers of new employees to DOL within 20 days from the date of hire to assist in the enforcement of child support obligations. Mail copies of Form CT-W4 for those employees only to DOL at the address listed below or FAX to the number listed below.
