Continuing Education for Electrologists

Sec. 20-275b-1. Definitions

For the purposes of sections 20-275b-1 to 20-275b-7, inclusive, of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies:

(1) “Active practice” means the treatment in Connecticut of one or more patients by a licensee during any given registration period;

(2) “Certificate of completion” means a document issued to a participant by a provider which certifies that the participant has successfully completed a continuing education activity;

(3) “Contact hour” means a minimum of fifty minutes of continuing education activity, unless otherwise specified in these regulations;

(4) “Department” means the Department of Public Health;

(5) “Face-to-face instruction” means in-person, live instruction which a participant physically attends, either individually or as a part of a group of participants;

(6) “Home study program” means continuing education activities, clearly related to maintaining skills necessary for the safe and competent practice of electrology that require the successful completion of a proficiency examination and are sponsored, endorsed or approved by the American Electrology Association or its affiliates;

(7) “Licensee” means an electrologist licensed pursuant to section 20-270 of the Connecticut General Statutes;

(8) “License renewal due date” means the last day of the month of the licensee’s date of birth;

(9) “Participant” means a licensee who successfully completes a continuing education activity;

(10) “Provider” means the individual educator or sponsoring organization conducting a continuing education activity; and

(11) “Registration period” means the one-year period for which a license has been renewed in accordance with section 19a-88 of the Connecticut General Statutes and is current and valid.

(Adopted effective July 25, 2002)

Sec. 20-275b-2. Number of contact hours required

(a) Each licensee applying for license renewal shall have completed a minimum of ten contact hours of qualifying continuing education during the preceding registration period, at least two of which shall be in infection control, blood borne diseases, universal precautions or sanitation and sterilization, or any combination thereof.

(b) Continuing education contact hours completed in one registration period shall not carry over to a subsequent registration period.

(c) Each licensee applying for license renewal shall sign a statement attesting that the licensee satisfies the continuing education requirements specified in section 20-275b-1 to section 20-275b-7, inclusive of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies.

(Adopted effective July 25, 2002)

Sec. 20-275b-3. Basic requirements for qualifying continuing education activities

(a) Qualifying continuing education activities are the following:

(1) courses offered or approved by the American Electrology Association or its affiliates;

(2) hospital or medical school sponsored educational offerings, provided the coursework is related to health issues of practitioners;

(3) post-graduate coursework offered at electrology schools approved in accordance with section 20-269 of the General Statutes of Connecticut for the purposes of licensure, either audited or by credit;

(4) credit-bearing college courses and other post-graduate classes for continuing education credit offered at a regionally accredited academic institution, provided the coursework is clearly related to electrology theory, technical and clinical aspects of electrolysis, electrology research, ethical or legal aspects of practicing electrology or health issues of electrologists;

(5) cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) course given by an American Heart Association or American Red Cross qualified instructor;

(6) presentation by a licensee of an original paper, essay or formal lecture in electrology; or

(7) original paper published by a licensee in a professional journal.

(b) Continuing education activities shall meet the following requirements:

(1) the activity involves face-to-face instruction or a home study program;

(2) the provider implements a mechanism to monitor and document physical attendance at such instruction or to verify licensee completion in the case of a home study program;

(3) the provider retains written records for a period of three years from the participant's actual successful completion of the activity, including but not limited to: content description; instructor; date of activity; location of activity; list of participants; participant's evaluation of instruction presented and number of contact hours; and

(4) the provider issues a certificate of completion after the participant's successful completion of the activity. Such certificate shall include the participant's name, provider's name, title or subject area of the activity, date and location of attendance and number of contact hours completed.

(c) Subject matter for qualifying continuing education activities shall reflect the scope of practice authorized under Chapter 388 of the Connecticut General Statutes, or as otherwise specified in these regulations.

(d) Activities which do not qualify for award of contact hours include: professional organizational business meetings; speeches delivered at luncheons or banquets; reading of books, articles, or professional journals; correspondence courses and other mechanisms of self instruction, except when used as a component of a home study program; and audio-visual materials, except when audio-visual materials are used as a component of a qualifying continuing education activity identified in subsections (a) and (b) of this section.

(Adopted effective July 25, 2002)

Sec. 20-275b-4. Award of contact hours

(a) Continuing education contact hours shall be awarded as follows:

(1) Courses, institutes, seminars, programs, clinics, conferences and teleconferences: one contact hour for each hour of attendance;

(2) first presentation by licensee of an original paper, essay or formal lecture in electrology to a recognized group of fellow professionals at a scientific meeting: five contact hours;

(3) original paper published by licensee in a professional journal that accepts papers only on the basis of independent review by experts: six contact hours for the first publication of the material; and

(4) post-graduate coursework shall be credited at one contact hour for each hour of attendance. Audited courses shall have hours of attendance documented.

(b) Eight contact hours shall be the maximum continuing education hours granted for any one day's participation in the activities specified in subsection (a) of this section.

(c) Successful completion of a cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) course given by an American Heart Association or American Red Cross qualified instructor shall be credited at a maximum of three contact hours per registration period.

(d) The licensee shall successfully complete a continuing education activity for award of any continuing education contact hours.

(Adopted effective July 25, 2002)

Sec. 20-275b-5. Record retention by licensees

(a) Each licensee shall obtain a certificate of completion from the provider of continuing education activities. Certificates of completion shall be retained by the licensee for a minimum of three years following the license renewal due date for which the activity satisfies license renewal requirements.

(b) The department may inspect such licensee records as it deems necessary. Certificates of completion shall be submitted by the licensee to the department only upon the department's request. The licensee shall submit such records to the department within 45 days of the department's request.

(c) A licensee who fails to comply with the continuing education requirements of sections 20-275b-1 to 20-275b-7, inclusive, of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies may be subject to disciplinary action, pursuant to section 20-271 of the Connecticut General Statutes.

(Adopted effective July 25, 2002)

Sec. 20-275b-6. Exemptions from and waiver of the continuing education requirements

(a) A waiver of the continuing education requirements may be extended to a licensee who is not engaged in active practice during a given registration period provided the licensee submits, prior to the expiration of the registration period, a notarized application on a form provided by the department. The application shall contain a statement that the licensee shall not engage in active practice until the licensee has shown proof of completion of the requirements specified in sections 20-275b-1 to 20-275b-7, inclusive, of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies.

(b) The department may, in individual cases involving a medical disability or illness, grant waivers of the minimum continuing education requirements or extensions of time within which to fulfill the requirements. The application for waiver or time extension shall be accompanied by a verifying document signed by a licensed physician. Waivers of the minimum continuing education requirements or extensions of time may be granted by the department for a period not to exceed one (1) calendar year. If the medical disability or illness, upon which a waiver or time extension has been granted continues beyond the period of the waiver or extension, the licensee shall reapply for the waiver or extension.

(c) A licensee whose license is due to expire within twelve months of the effective date of sections 20-275b-1 to 20-275b-7, inclusive, of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, shall be exempt from continuing education requirements until such licensee's next registration period.

(d) A licensee applying for license renewal for the first time is exempt from continuing education requirements.

(Adopted effective July 25, 2002)

Sec. 20-275b-7. Requirements for return to active practice following waiver of the continuing education requirements

A licensee who has received a waiver, pursuant to subsection (a) of section 20-275b-6 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, shall submit to the department evidence of successful completion of four contact hours of continuing education prior to returning to active practice, which shall be applied to the registration period during which the licensee was exempt from such continuing education requirements.
