

Maryville, Tenn.

Marion Tipton
Route #3

4/2/52--1000 Chinese chestnut trees obtained from Mr. Edward C. Davis, Porter High School Teacher at Maryville, which Mr. Davis had gotten from A. G. Heinsohn, of Knoxville, Tenn., who had grown these 2-year-old seedlings on his estate near Gatlinburg; Spencer B. Chase of TVA said the seed from which these trees grew came from a Dr. George S. Jones in Alabama.

Mr. Davis planted a number of them, also H. E. Ledbetter put out 700, and the remainder of the 5000 were given in small bunches to high school students mostly. The trees that Mr. Shivery saw were set put at a 12-foot spacing.

Cards have been made for Davis and Ledbetter

Maryville, Tenn.

H. E. Ledbetter
Route #3

4/2/52--700 Chinese chestnut trees obtained from Mr. Edward C. Davis, Porter High School Teacher at Maryville, which Mr. Davis had gotten from A. G. Heinsohn at Knoxville, Tenn, who had grown these 2-year-old seedlings on his estate near Gatlinburg; Spencer B. Chase, of TVA, said the seed from which these trees were grown came from a Dr. George S. Jones in Alabama.

Mr. Davis planted a number of them and Marion Tipton planted 1000; the remainder of the 5000 were given in small bunches mostly to high school students. The trees that Mr. Shivery saw were set out at a 12-foot spacing.

Cards have been made for Mr. Davis and Mr. Tipton.