

Grandview, Wash.

(10)

Joseph Fleming.

10/26/46 (from J. H. Schultz, Irrigation Branch Experiment Station, Prosser, Wash.): Has six Jap chest. trees grown from seed planted in 1908, also one tree of European chestnut. Nuts not yet all gathered, but Mr. Slocum has already weighed up 1000 # sold at 30¢ per lb.

Grandview, Wash.

(11)

E. Edwin Slocum

10/24/46 (from J. H. Schultz, Irrigation Br. Expt. Station at Prosser, Wash.): Has 4 Amer. chestnut trees 3 to 4 ft. in diameter, planted about 1905. Heavy producers. Seedling trees and one in particular produces nut of good quality, sweetness, & size, the other 2 not so sweet. Healthy, thrifty trees. No CB. in the area.

GRANDVIEW, WASH. Seed mimeo. sent '44

(12)

I. W. Warner

1/14/28 - 30 #66037 C. moll.